

Waimakariri Bike Project - Ride It Forward

The Waimakariri Bike Project (WBP) is a local volunteer-led initiative helping people get back on their bikes and riding safely. Whether you've got a flat tyre, a squeaky chain, or a bike that's been sitting unused for years, WBP can help.

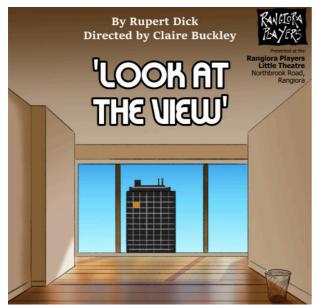

WBP runs free weekly workshops where you can bring your bike for basic repairs and maintenance. It's not just about fixing bikes—it's about learning skills to keep them running. The workshops are held every Wednesday from 6–8 pm at the back of Dudley Pool, 47 Church Street, Rangiora.

If you have an old bike or spare parts lying around, consider donating them. WBP recycles donated bikes and gives them to people in need, keeping the community rolling.

Want to lend a hand? Volunteers are always welcome—just drop in during a workshop night or contact us to get involved.

Look at the View - A Comedy by Rupert Dick

The Rangiora Players are proud to bring Look at the View to the stage — a sharp, funny tale of love, secrets, and a flat that's just a little too perfect.

Max and Fiona have moved into a suspiciously cheap apartment in the right part of town. But when Fiona finds a burner phone hidden in a drawer, things unravel fast — friendships, marriages, and trust all come under fire.

Directed by Claire Buckley, this witty play runs from Saturday 7 June to Saturday 21 June, with matinees on 14 and 21 June at the Rangiora Players Little Theatre.

Don't miss this twisty slice of suburban drama!

Thank you!

Blanketed with Love would like to make special acknowledgement to a very inspiring Sue Davie from Holmwood Rest Home for her amazing donation to my project of knitted squares and blankets and a local compassionate soul Shona who also donated an incredible amount of knitted clothing and blankets. A massive thank you to you both from myself and my wonderful group of ladies that help me, but most of all on behalf of all those vulnerable precious little ones that you have gifted so much love too
