Have a Go Day – North Canterbury BMX Club

Curious about BMX? Join us at the North Canterbury BMX Club – mark your calendar for Saturday 11 October and our free “Have a Go Day.” It’s perfect for first-time riders or anyone keen to try something new in a safe, supportive environment.

Bring closed-toe shoes, a long sleeve shirt, gloves, and plenty of energy. Some gear and helmets available, or bring your own. All ages welcome. 2-4pm. North Canterbury BMX Club, 32 Milton Ave, Rangiora

North Canterbury Woodcraft Club

The Club continues to welcome new members discovering the joys of woodturning. Welcome Kath from Oxford!

You don't need your own tools to join – the Club's well-equipped workshop is open Wednesday afternoons, Thursday nights, and Saturday mornings with experienced tutors on hand. The Club also runs one-off “Have a Go” sessions for local groups and organisations, such as home school students, men's groups, and Scouts, where participants can make projects like dibblers, twig pots, or phone stands. These sessions are always popular and a great way to try turning for the first time. Find out more at nthsantwoodcraft.net

Heads Up for Kids

The NZ Lions Charitable Trust runs the Heads Up for Kids Foundation, raising funds by collecting old NZ and foreign currency. Some coins are sold to collectors, some melted down, and others passed on to foreign exchange.

Donations can be dropped at any Resene Colorshop or at banks in Rangiora. Funds raised support young New Zealanders to achieve their dreams.
