

Trick or Treating in Rangiora!

All year round, adults often remark that kids don't spend much time outside. It's easy to see why: plain fences, tidy yards, and cautious routines don't exactly invite adventure.

Halloween provides an excuse to break that pattern and turn the ordinary into playfulness.

Let's allow ourselves to get involved and get crafty, and let's get children outside, exploring, laughing, and connecting with the community.

To make things even easier, Clare collects a list of all houses happy for kids to stop by. Join the Facebook group "Trick or Treating in Rangiora" for more details.

Volunteers Needed: Lions Skin Cancer Screening Bus

The Lions Skin Cancer Screening Bus will be at the Special Olympics from 10th–14th December, and volunteer nurses are needed to help as screeners.

Many people with intellectual disabilities do not always receive the health care they need. That's why there is a Healthy Athletes Program at the Special Olympics, offering checks for sight, dental, podiatry, hearing, mental health, and skin.

If you can help, please contact: Ann Saunders - NZ Motorhoming Lions Club - secretary.nzmlc@lionsclubs.org.nz
