

Rangiora Mystery Trail

A mystery is unfolding across Rangiora. Before he disappeared, Arthur left a trail of clues hidden with people and places he trusted around Rangiora.

Visit each location, collect the hidden codes, and piece together the phrase that points to his final letter.

This is not your typical scavenger hunt. The clues are tucked into real shops around town, the kind of places you have probably walked past a hundred times without ever going in. That is exactly the point. The trail is a small, friendly excuse to step somewhere new, say hello to someone you have never met, and see your own town a little differently for an hour or so.

You can play alone, and plenty of people will. But it is more fun with someone beside you. A second pair of eyes catches things you would miss on your own, and there is nothing quite like the moment you both spot it at the same time. If you ever get stuck, the staff at each location know exactly what you are looking for. All you have to do is ask.

Only available for a limited time. Find the Rangiora App on your phone's App Store or Google Play Store, and start the trail whenever you are ready.

Blanketed With Love

Blanketed With Love are desperate for more knitters, crocheters and now we need sewers.

While winter has been reasonably mild the harsh cold days will come and there are children in our communities and in surroundings areas that are cold and vulnerable and need our help.

Let's not allow another child to suffer, let's keep our compassion alive, the love flowing and wrap our little ones in warmth, let them know that there's a whole community that care. We are also in need of woollen blankets, it doesn't matter if they have a hole or two or if they have a couple of marks as these will be cut up to cot size and bound with a beautiful edge.

You can reach out through our Facebook page facebook.com/blanketedwithlovenz
